Eyoh was a good instructor. He showed a lot of enthusiasm when teaching. He had a formidable knowledge about African culture and politics. The course itself, was interesting.

NEW 160Y1Y INTRODUCTION TO WOMEN'S STUDIES

Instructor(s): Z. Newman

	Resp: 45							Retake: 68%

Learn Exp	2	5	8	26	8	17	29	5.0

Although Newman was a good instructor in that she instilled critical or analytical thinking skills in her students, she was not so organized. A majority of the class found the course very intellectually stimulating and interesting. A few thought that it was disappointing because the concepts were not explained clearly. Others believed that marks were jeopardized when the instructor or TA's beliefs didn't coincide with the students.

Instructor(s): A. Trotz

	Resp: 78							Retake: 64%
	1	2	3	4	5	6	7

Learn Exp	3	0	7	30	21	21	16	4.9

Trotz was a very good instructor who was thorough and articulate. She used various resources to demonstrate the concepts to her students clearly, such as guest lecturers and films. Students also liked the fact that the three essays in the course were formatted differently. This allowed them to explore and develop their critical thinking. The course was great, but the work required could be daunting at times.

NEW 212Y1Y INTRODUCTION TO HINDI

Instructor(s): S. Tripathi

	Resp: 30							Retake: 69%

Learn Exp	4	4	13	27	18	13	18	4.6

Tripathi was a very nice instructor, and without a doubt, very smart. His lack of organization affected his teaching abilities in a negative way, however, as students with no Hindi background found themselves confused. Many students felt they didn't learn much from taking this course because Tripathi didn't teach the basics of the Hindi language. Students also realized that he was truly a kind person, but he just didn't know how to teach the material effectively. A few commented he was a good instructor who truly cared about his students.

NEW 214Y1Y SOCIALLY ENGAGED BUDDHISM

Difficulty	0	0	0	50	33	8	8	4.8
Learn Exp	0	0	14	42	0	14	28	5.0

Students concurred that Bobb Smith was a disorganized instructor who did not provide clear instructions or expectations. Most of the time, presentations dominated the lecture hour. This disappointed many students as their learning expectations were left unmet.

NEW 224Y1Y CARIBBEAN THOUGHT I

Instructor(s): A. Itwaru

	Resp: 64							Retake: 93%
	1	2	3	4	5	6	7

Learn Exp	0	0	0	7	12	22	57	6.3

Itwaru was an exemplary teacher. He taught in an unconventional way that allowed his students to think critically and independently. He was full of energy and passion, features that let him communicate the goals of the course effectively. Students felt they learned so much, not just course content, but also life lessons that they would value forever. Clearly, the course and the instructor came highly recommended.

NEW 240Y1Y INTRODUCTION TO EQUITY STUDIES

Instructor(s): J. Larkin

	Resp: 139							Retake: 89%
	1	2	3	4	5	6	7

Learn Exp	1	6	8	51	20	9	1	4.2

Students loved the films featured in the class, but they complained about the excessive amount of readings. Often, the reading material was not discussed in class, so many felt they were not helpful. There were also mixed feelings about the instructor - some said she was an enthusiastic lecturer, others commented that she was a bit unorganized which made it difficult to understand the complex material.

NEW 271Y1Y GENDER, RACE AND CLASS IN CONTEMPORARY POPULAR CULTURE

Instructor(s): K. Armatage

	Resp: 40							Retake: 58%
	1	2	3	4	5	6	7

Difficulty	0	0	15	70	15	0	0	4.0
Learn Exp	0	9	18	48	12	12	0	4.0

A majority of students were very disappointed with the instructor's performance. She was aloof and unwilling to help students. She failed to provide a good analysis of the readings. She also appeared to be condescending towards students because of her use of "harsh words" when she answered questions in class or when she made comments on students' essays. The readings were not contemporary at all, a fact that frustrated many students.

NEW 302Y1Y C.G. JUNG AND HUMANISM

Almasi was a genuinely nice instructor who cared about his students' well-being. He made himself available even after office hours to answer questions or meet with students to address their concerns. He was well-organized and articulate. However, native speakers were allowed to take the course, making it difficult for non-native speakers to keep up.
