Some students commented that although they appreciated the use of Kalmar's examples, they were sometimes confusing. Many students did not like the marking scheme and would have preferred four separate tests covering each section. Regular tutorials would also have been helpful.

Barker was generally well-received. Some students commented that there was extensive reading material for this section of the course.

Students found the Lehman to be enthusiastic and entertaining. They appreciated the lecture notes on the web site. However, the students preferred to have the notes prior to the lectures. Many students appreciated his humorous comments.

Although students appreciated Coupland's knowledge on the subject matter, they felt that he needed to be more enthusiastic. He should have a better control in such a big lecture hall. The students liked his dry wit and the use of examples.

Many students commented that more evaluating opportunities would have been preferable. Only having 2 tests and an exam seemed inadequate. Also, having a tutorial would have been beneficial, as many students felt that their questions were not adequately dealt with.

Most students found the instructor enthusiastic and knowledgeable about the material. Although some students found the lectures to be a bit disorganized at times. The tests asked for extremely specific knowledgeable from the textbook and did not accurately reflect the material emphasized in lectures. The tutorials could have been more uniformly organized.

ANT 204Y1Y Social & Cultural Anthropology

Learn Exp	0	1	5	26	35	17	12	5.0

The students agreed that the instructor communicated her enthusiasm and knowledge of the material very well. However, too much material was being presented during lectures making it difficult for students to absorb all the information. Also, the instructor did not always make clear what was expected in terms of the essay and exam. The instructor used a plethora of examples from many different cultures to ensure students understood the concepts and ideas being taught.

ANT 253H1F Language and Society

Difficulty	0	0	7	48	19	23	1	4.6
Learn Exp	0	0	4	20	34	26	16	5.3

The instructor was enthusiastic and knowledgeable about the course material, however, some students felt that he was sometimes rushed and a little disorganized.

Students also felt that the labs required more structures and that the lab requirements were unclear at times. There were a few suggestions made by students that the course would have been more beneficial had the material been spread out over an entire year.

ANT 333Y1Y Living Primate Adaptations

Instructor(s): S. Lehman

Enr: 54	Resp: 34							Retake: 73%
	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	Mean

Difficulty	0	3	3	57	21	15	0	4.4
Learn Exp	7	3	7	42	19	11	7	4.3

Overall, students agreed that Lehman was very enthusiastic. The tests were difficult and did not reflect the course material. What was required for the research paper was too advanced for this level of study. Students stated that they did not get enough instruction for the research paper and that it should have been worth more. Difficulty of labs varied greatly and instructions given were sometimes ambiguous. Lehman did not always adequately respond to questions during office hours.

ANT 334Y1Y Human Skeletal Biology

Instructor(s): M. Roksandic

Enr: 60	Resp: 32							Retake: 93%

Difficulty	0	0	0	56	28	15	0	4.6
Learn Exp	0	0	0	8	36	32	24	5.7

This was a very good course taught by a very knowledgeable instructor. Many students commented that this course should have been longer than one hour. Some students felt that the course outline could have been more clearly stated. Also, the major assignments should have been discussed in detail at the beginning of the course. Many students felt that the labs were very helpful.

ANT 347Y1Y Metropolis: Global Cities

Instructor(s): J. Barker

Enr: 82	Resp: 62							Retake: 87%
	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	Mean

Difficulty	0	0	1	40	44	8	5	4.7
Learn Exp	0	0	4	20	33	22	20	5.3

Barker was approachable, engaging and dedicated to explaining the subject matter. He introduced issues that encouraged independent thinking which some students found invaluable; this method of interactive teaching engaged the students in a highly positive manner. Some students found the readings difficult and the marking strict. Overall, however, many students considered this course the best that they had ever taken.

ANT 348Y1Y Anthropology of Health

Instructor(s): R. Lee

Enr: 171	Resp: 124							Retake: 91%
	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	Mean

Difficulty	0	0	9	75	7	7	0	4.1
Learn Exp	0	1	1	26	37	19	13	5.2

Lee was well-organized, engaging and highly knowledgeable. Most students thought that this course, taught by a pioneer in medical anthropology, was an excellent learning experience. However, some commented that the tutorials could have been more constructive.

ANT 350H1F Globalization and the Changing World of Work

Instructor(s): G. Smith

Enr: 96	Resp: 80							Retake: 71%
	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	Mean
