

Introduction

The Undergraduate Sociology Students' Union (USSU) is a student-run organization that acts as a liaison between students and the Department of Sociology. We offer a variety of services to undergrads in Sociology: peer counselling service and test packages from past Sociology courses. Various USSU members have office hours where students can drop by and ask questions. To find out more or to join USSU, call us at (416) 978-4385, e-mail us at ussu\_soc@hotmail.com or drop by our office at 725 Spadina Ave., room 225.

SOC 101Y1Y Introduction to Sociology

Instructor(s): M. Mackinnon

	Enr: 698							Mean

Difficulty	1	1	12	57	16	7	2	4.2
Learn Exp	4	2	8	41	21	15	5	4.4

Most students felt that Mackinnon was a good instructor and tried to keep students awake with little jokes, but a few mentioned his monotonous voice and disorganization. The multiple-choice tests did not reflect important points of the class.

Students would have appreciated more (and better) tutorials because there was no chance for discussion in such a large class.

Instructor(s): R. Brym

	Enr: 810							Mean
	1	2	3	4	5	6	7

Learn Exp	3	1	6	30	21	23	11	4.8

Brym was said to be good. Tests should have been simpler and an essay would have better reflected the students' knowledge.

Colagnori was explicit in his teaching and used appropriate examples. Students felt that it was a wonderful class experience. Colagnori was approachable and responded to emails quickly, although he didn't have proper office hours. Also, the penalty for a late assignment was too much.

Learn Exp	0	9	0	45	27	18	0	4.5

Sorenson was a good instructor - very kind and understanding, enthusiastic and made time for her students. The material, however, was very hard to grasp, and the textbook was not good. The exercises 'were worth little' and answers needed to be brief and specific.

Students felt that Gillis was easy going and enthusiastic about the material. Students felt that slides on the lecture outlines would have been helpful. The volume of readings for each test was disproportionate to the questions on the test. Also, some students felt that more evaluation methods were needed other than multiple choice tests. Students complained that too much reading was required and the texts were expensive.

SOC 317Y1Y Industrial Sociology
