Learn Exp 0 0 0 19 9 42 28 5.8

Students felt there was never a dull moment in Rose's class. They thought she was very enthusiastic about teaching and the material. She was genuinely interested in students' progress and the first-year experience. Some students would have preferred a more in-depth analysis of the texts rather than repeatedly discussing university life and freshmen transition. Many enjoyed her humour and "outside" sources because these encouraged participation. "The reading requirements seemed high, but the options given for tests allowed for leeway between completed readings." Students highly recommended this course and would take any that Rose would be teaching.

L0334 The Force is With Us: A Consideration of Culture and Film

Instructor(s): K. Derry

Enr: 23	Resp: 21							Retake: 80%

Learn Exp	0	0	5	41	17	17	17	5.0

Derry's class was very enjoyable and worthwhile for most students. He was very approachable, quick to respond to email, enthusiastic and insightful. His constructive feedback on essays were much appreciated. Many found themselves improving their analytical thinking and writing skills. He brought interesting films to class, but a few found the readings unrelated to the movies shown. Many suggested taking this course to students interested in film and its relationship to culture - not only would it improve public speaking and analytical skills, it would also "change the way one views films".
