262 FIRST YEAR SEMINARS

Learn Exp 5 11 11 33 11 11 16 4.3

Students felt that Wittnich was very knowledgeable and was available to answer questions regarding the course material. Students also appreciated the expression of her first hand experience. However would have appreciated some level of application of the material presented.

The expectations of the seminar experience were not presented to the students and therefore many stated that evaluation was unclear as well as very little feedback provided. Students benefitted from the skills learned in the seminar but found the course content to be lacking.

L0241 Biology in the Movies: Fact or Fancy

Learn Exp	0	0	0	35	14	14	35	5.5

All respondents were very happy with Wortmann's enthusiastic friendly and interactive teaching style. Students thought that the presentations and class discussions were a great way to learn. Perhaps a more clear "end goal" could have been communicated at the beginning of the year.

The class was very well structured for Arts students who did not have a science background. Very enjoyable experience overall.

Instructor(s): J. Bollman

	Enr: 20							Mean

Difficulty	0	8	8	66	16	0	0	3.9
Learn Exp	0	0	0	18	27	45	9	5.5

The course seemed to have a lot of different methods of evaluation, so students had varying opinions on them. While some students enjoyed the few small assignments others liked writing the research essay. On the other hand some found it difficult to work in a group for the presentation others liked the opportunity to learn from the experience.

Overall, students enjoyed having MacDonald as their instructor.
